

What can and can't do in a task

The task that we are focussing in on today is:

Self Talk - “ I need to find out which parts of a task my child can and can't do so that I can teach them what they need to know to learn how to do the task independently. ”

I can do:

I can't do:

I need to teach my child the steps that they can't do so they can complete the task independently.
