My Christmas

It is December now and that means that Christmas Day is coming soon.

My Christmas Tree is up now and it looks like this

There are wrapped presents under my tree.

When I look at them, I feel so excited.

I need to wait until the 25th of December to open my presents

I can mark the days of December off to see when I can open my presents.

I will see some other people during my Christmas celebration.

Who will I see?
